

Your Inside is defined by What One Thinks/imagines
Your Outside is defined by Your Actions
You are a Politician, when Inside & Outside are different

I will VOTE! Only if a new leader is capable of consolidation of all parties into REAL two/three major real parties that are above, what going on at present and that will matter at world stage levels, NOT deep Fake multiple parties, For example from now on; (1) Asoka (peoples' conservative) Party (2) Lok Raj (democratic / progressive's) Party. (3) Independents (those who do not want to be part of 1 or 2 and are wealthy & disciplined elites). Let all others that are left out know that, instead of ancient politics, start building their own empires or corporations, Giant Machines including your own new brands, to build modern Aero planes, cars, trains etc., by creating your own brand.

When a Country Leader is not replaced before the end of second term, by confidence VOTE. That country is either NOT moving/progressing in the right direction or is NOT developed yet. Consider it as a litmus test of your claims of "Developed county"

I agree with your recommendations, God bless us All and save us from tyrannical radical individuals out there who still think today, the era of 1 to 100 AD must be repeated or kept alive!

Your Inside is shaped by What One Thinks/imagines

Your Outside is shaped by Your Actions

You are a Politician, when Inside(s) & Outside(s) are different

There are two types of politicians, (1) Innovative , (2) Toxic

Your Inner Goodness fetches Good, Your Toxicity fetches Toxic or bad behaviors

Believe you can and you're more than halfway there!
