

The future may belong to city clusters, not individual cities

We mapped where the next innovation strongholds are emerging.

Competitive advantage is becoming clustered

Growth is increasingly concentrating across connected urban ecosystems.

The strongest clusters combine:

talent

capital

infrastructure

specialization

connectivity

---

The cities winning investment are not competing alone anymore

Regional clusters are creating new models for growth:

Hong Kong – Shenzhen – Guangzhou

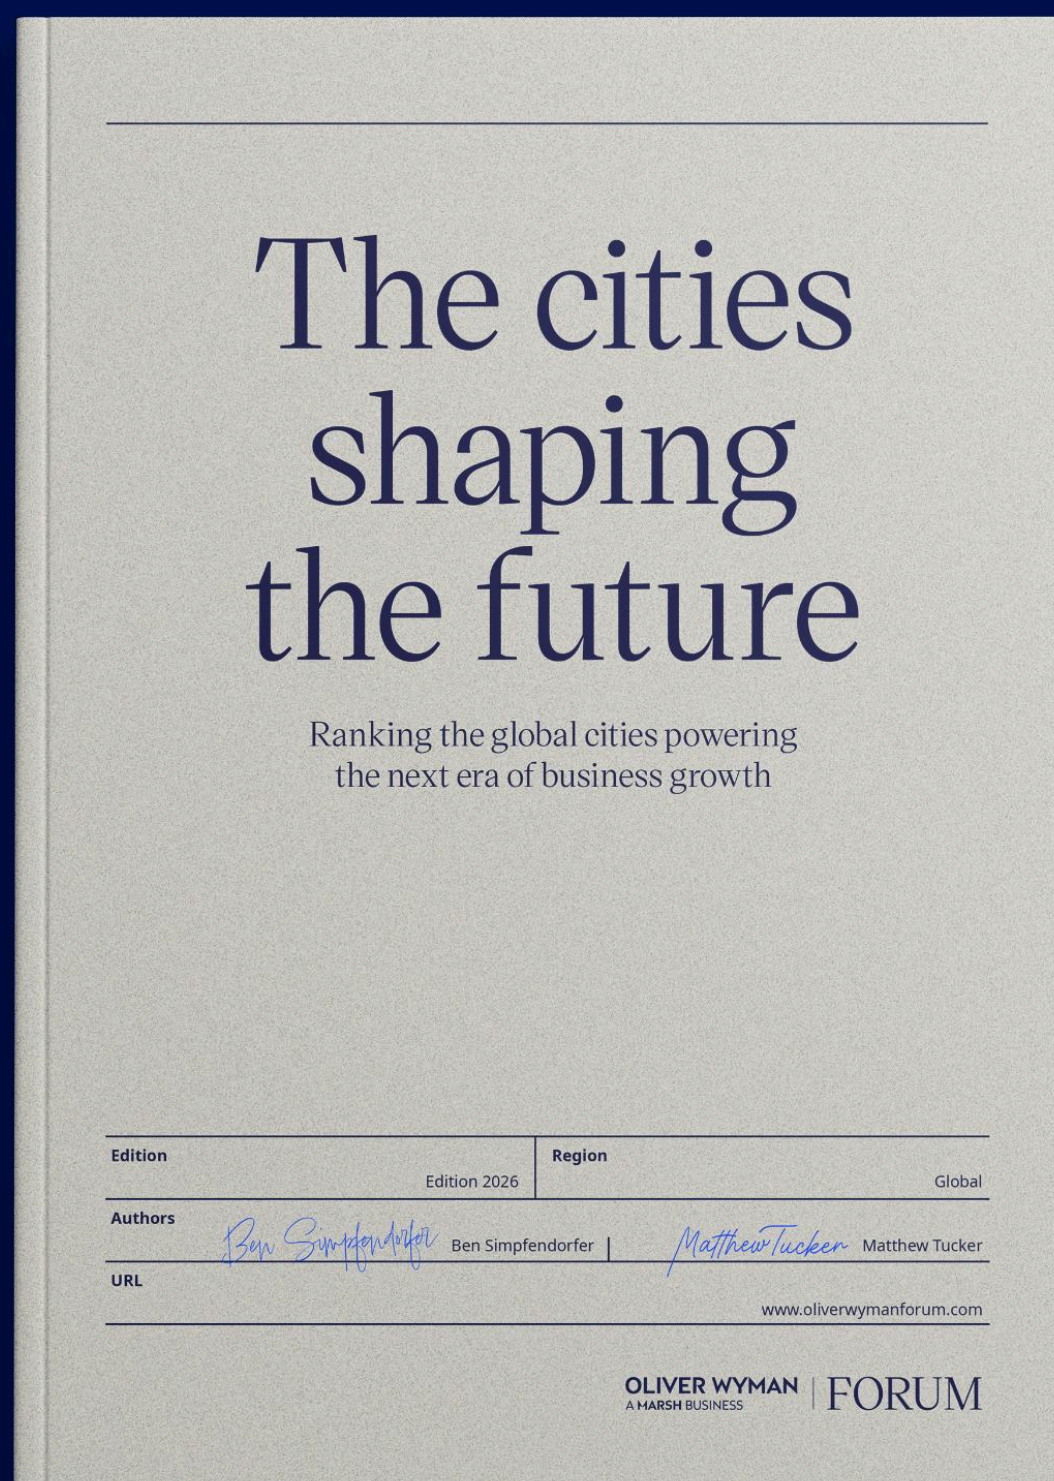

---

Dallas – Austin – Houston

---

Singapore – Johor Bahru – Batam

The next generation of growth will favor
connected ecosystems.
