I do understand “No Pains & No Gains”. I do not agree with the mindset or CRAP SHOOTS. That all pains are Yours and all gains are MINE”. I do agree with this interpretation that it’s win-win for all parties!

AGREE | some cultures may try to sell helping hand or tools! for infinite amount of money | This was my response to a pictorial/cartoon, where a drowning person was asking for helping hand. You can see that at LinkedIn my posts & activities. Bravo that's 21st century mindset, NOT an archaic type of painful injustice belief to enhance ultra elites' & their cohorts' activities or Agendas | You can't teach someone, who believes in Almighty. He/she may be Godly and NOT above all including GOD! Such belief systems that someone is better or above GOD can create perpetual or never-ending conflicts.

What's the best way to handle TOXIC BULLIES (they force their way or agenda no matter what it can cost as far as long hours (TOLL) are concerned? They just want to pick your brains and want to be LEADERS or Stealers mostly, who have no clues what they are doing!

Be aware. If you can do job of three or four employees. Then you can handle higher rank jobs with higher pay, this will be better option in the long run of your career, than staying at lower level for more money in the form of Over Time. Be very careful how you handle “work” responsibilities. Good Luck!
